William	Australian Army Service Corps	Easington Lane, County Durham	Dvr (A/Sjt) 977 for conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He conducted fifty-two mule loads of grenades, ammunition and water to the forward area under great difficulties, being frequently under shell fire. He showed great initiative in overcoming such obstacles as a river, trenches, and wire. He successfully delivered his load and returned without any casualties, and he has been consistently cool and resourceful whilst engaged in pack work. 25.8.17	?	FMP / Mapping Our Anzacs
William	Canadian Machine Gun Corps	Plaster Rock, New Brunswick	Appleby W, Cpl 817815 For conspicuous gallantry and good work during an attack. He went forward as a scout and brought back valuable information to his section officer. He guided his crew through heavy fire and brought it into action on several occasions, inflicting heavy casualties. His gun also put two field guns out of action. 15.11.18	?
